"I've never before drunk so deeply from the soul of the safety of sisterhood and from the well of the womb of womanhood. I am surrendered, free and grateful at last"

- Slow down, be still and listen to the wisdom of our bodies
- Learn to open to our sensual natures
- Instruction, demo and practice of giving and receiving sacred spot massage
- Tantric dance
- Process and meet what arises
- Deepen the trust in our female intuition and more...

In the slowing down that our direct experience can take on a fullness, a vibrant openness. In this openness we can see in the moment what truly wants to happen. This can be a great relief for the many women who say "yes" when they mean "no" or vice versa.

The sacred spot massage is a unique initiation ritual and a healing process that activates the transformative power of the female Shakti and increases the delight of owning your body.

Marlies has a deep love of being with women who are awakening to their true selves. For many years she has been ushering women into the Secret Mysteries of the Feminine.

Marlies Cocheret de la Morinière was born and raised in The Netherlands. She has been in California for 16 years. She works as a spiritual teacher, a psychologist, a certified hakomi therapist and a certified tantric educator in the USA, Canada, and the Netherlands. Invited to teach by Adyashanti, Marlies offers satsang.
