"A spiritual life is not truly lived until the moment we are fully expressing that Original Aliveness and Inner Beauty. We do not know how it will be, taste, smell, sense until it is lived each moment. I invite you to Satsang to join together in finding the Stillness that is always here, always available; in finding the Natural Beauty that you already are."

Marlies Cocheret de la Morinière – MA has been offering Satsang since 2000, when Adyashanti asked her to teach. She also works as a counselor, a certified hakomi therapist and certified tantric educator in the USA, Canada, and the Netherlands. Marlies is known for being loving, yet direct with a sense of humor. She brings spirituality from the clouds right down into this human body experience.
